Dear Candidate,

The Associated Students of Oregon State University
Elections Committee

I present you with the ASOSU Elections Packet for the 2018 Election Cycle. Showing interest this early on in the school year is admirable, and I hope that this packet provides you with all the information you will need to conduct a successful campaign. If you have any questions or concerns about the election process, please reach out to the Elections Committee. We are here to help clarify guidelines and ensure that this is both an accessible and equitable election season for all candidates.

Elections can certainly be a difficult time for all. It is your duty to familiarize yourself with the rules within this packet, as violations are a serious concern and will not be taken lightly by the committee. If at any point you are unsure about something regarding elections, please contact me as soon as possible.

These elections will be responsible for the selection of the new ASOSU President & Vice President, Speaker of the House, Senators, members of the House of Representatives, and Student Fee Committee members. This packet contains dates, deadlines, and regulations that outline the election experience. Again, ask questions if you need clarification. The sooner, the better.

A final thought- begin engaging with various organizations on campus to gain a better understanding of the issues current students face within Oregon State University. As a potential representative for student voice, it is essential that you are well informed. I wish you the best of luck, and look forward to seeing what you will accomplish in the near future.

Regards,

RADHIKA SHAH
VICE PRESIDENT

Title XI: Elections Guidelines

Section 1: Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

The Associated Students of Oregon State University
Elections Committee

- A. "Ballot" means any material on which votes may be cast for candidates or measures.
- B. "Chief Elections Officer" means the Chair of the Elections Committee.
- C. "Party" means a student political organization for the purpose of pursuing a shared agenda by exercising their shared political power
- D. "Elector" means any student eligible to vote under the Constitution of ASOSU. These shall be Corvallis campus students paying the student incidental fee during the academic term in which an election occurs.
- E. "Measure" includes any Initiative or Referendum submitted to the students for their approval or rejection during an election.
- F. "Vote Tally System" means the electronic system which collects and automatically counts ballots.
- G. "Continuing ballot" means a ballot that is not an exhaustive ballot
- H. "Exhausted ballot" means a ballot on which there are no choices marked other than choices for eliminated candidate.

Section 2: Elections conducted under these guidelines.

Any general election or special election held at Oregon State University shall be conducted under the provisions of these guidelines and shall be under the authority of the ASOSU Elections Committee. The Elections Committee shall have authority to make temporary revisions to these guidelines during the period of the election to be institutionalized through statutory amendment afterward. The Elections Committee shall set all specific dates of events. The Elections Committee will only make decisions when a quorum is present, defined as 50%+1 of student committee members, excluding the Chair. A majority shall be decided by 50%+1 of the present members. In the event of a tie, the Chair will cast the tie-breaker vote.

Section 4: For the offices of ASOSU President, Vice President, and Speaker of the House: The ballots shall be counted by the method of instant runoff voting prescribed herein:

- A. The initial round of counting shall be a count of the first choices marked on each ballot. If any candidate receives a majority of the first choices, that candidate shall be declared the winner, pending ratification.
- B. If no candidate receives a majority of first choices, there shall be a second round of counting. The last-place candidate shall be eliminated, and all the continuing ballots shall be recounted. Each continuing ballot shall be counted as one vote for that ballot's highest ranked advancing candidate. Single person voting rather than ranking individuals
- C. If no candidate receives a majority at the second round of counting, there shall be a third round of counting, continuing in the manner prescribed above.
- D. The process of eliminating the last-place candidates and recounting all the continuing ballots shall continue until one candidate receives a majority of the votes in a round. The candidate who receives a simple majority of the votes in a round shall be declared the winner, pending ratification.
- E. When a ballot does not list a preference for any given round, it shall not be counted in that round or any subsequent round.

The Associated Students of Oregon State University
Elections Committee

- F. If there are any insufficient second or lower choices for any candidate to receive a majority, the candidate with the highest number of votes shall be declared the winner, pending ratification.
- G. When a ballot becomes an exhausted ballot it shall not be counted in that round or any subsequent round.

Section 5: ASOSU House of Representatives, Senate, and SFC

- A. For ASOSU House, Senate, and SFC Candidates the top vote getters after one round shall be awarded the available seats.
- B. No measure/initiative shall be adopted unless it receives an affirmative majority of the total votes cast on the measure. If two or more conflicting laws, or amendments to the ASOSU Constitution or Statutes, are approved at the same election, the law, or amendment, receiving the greatest number of affirmative votes shall take precedence and overrule the conflicting measure.

Section 6: Information regarding ballot format and method of voting ballot.

Prior to each election, the Elections Committee shall make every reasonable effort to acquaint electors with the ballot process to be used in the election and the method to cast a vote.

Section 7: Register of candidates.

The Chief Elections Officer shall keep a register of candidates engaged in campaigning. The register, if applicable, shall contain the following:

- A. The title/position for which each candidate has filed.
- B. The name and contact information of each candidate for nomination.
- C. The date of filing for nomination of the candidate.
- D. Platform statement and photo of candidate(s)
- E. Biography (optional)
- F. Such other information that may aid the Chief Elections Officer in arranging the Official ballot for elections. No extra information shall be required of one candidate than another.

Section 8: Elections Committee's statement of offices, candidates and measures.

- A. The Elections Committee shall publish and make available to the general public, the Election Packet no later than the first informational session.
- B. This Election packet shall contain the following information:
  - 1. This Election Guidelines.
  - 2. Descriptions of all elected office including assigned duties.
  - 3. Calendar of all deadlines and other important dates.
  - 4. Copies of all needed forms necessary to conduct campaigning, nomination, petition violations, and appeals.

Section 9: Official general or special election ballots.

The Associated Students of Oregon State University

Elections Committee

- A. The official general or special election ballot shall be styled “Official Ballot” and shall state:
1. The date of the general election.
  2. The names of all candidates at the general election who have withdrawn or become disqualified.
- B. The word “incumbent” shall follow the name of each candidate seeking re-election to the same office.
- C. One vote shall be permitted per elector for an ASOSU President, Vice President, and Speaker of the House ticket. Each elector is permitted a single vote for any candidate for the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively, but shall only be permitted to vote for a maximum number of candidates equal to the number of positions currently available for students for which to campaign in the Senate and House of Representatives, Respectively.
- D. Available space for write-in votes shall immediately follow the last candidates name for every elected office on the ballot.

Section 10: Order of Candidate Names and Initiatives on ballot.

- A. Ballots shall be ordered as follows:
1. Ballot Initiatives/Amendments
  2. Computer randomized for the offices of ASOSU President and Vice-President, and Speaker of the House
  3. Computer randomized for the ASOSU Senate.
  4. Computer randomized for the member at large seats of the ASOSU House of Representatives.
  5. Computer randomized for the member at large seats of the Student Incidental Fee Committee

Section 11: Ballot specifications.

- A. Official ballots shall be made available through the ASOSU website.

Section 12: Personnel for receiving ballot results.

The Chief Elections Officer shall act as the primary counter of ballots and shall solicit more than one volunteer to aid in this task.

Section 13: Contingency for Failure of Electronic Voting System.

In the event of a failure of the electronic voting system, which shall be defined as failure to record ballots, compiling of accurate election results, or loss of system availability for students to cast votes, the Chief Elections Officer shall declare a new election date which shall occur no later than ten days following a failure of the electronic voting system.

Section 14: Procedures after 10 p.m. on Election Day.

- A. Ballots may be tallied by a vote tally system following the closure of the polls at 10 p.m. on Election Day.

The Associated Students of Oregon State University
Elections Committee

B. The Chief Elections Officer shall announce the winners of the election via the ASOSU website no later than 3 a.m. the day following Election Day. No less than three members of the elections committee shall be on site to confirm the results of the election.

C. The Chief Elections Officer shall contact every candidate by phone to tell them the results of the elections

Section 15: Individual Elected by Write-In votes; Form Rules.

A. An individual elected to an elected office by write-in votes shall sign and file a form indicating that the individual accepts the office before the chief elections officer may issue a certificate of election. The elections committee by rule shall prescribe the form to be used under this section.

Section 16: Chief Elections Officer's Duties After Election.

A. The Chief Elections Officer, regarding offices for which the elections committee receives filings for nomination, shall:

1. Prepare, sign, and deliver a certificate of election to each candidate or ticket having the most votes for election to the office.
2. Issue a proclamation declaring the election of candidates to the offices which shall be sent to the Daily Barometer.
3. Issue a proclamation giving the number of votes cast for or against each measure, and declaring the approved measures as the law on the effective date of the measure. If two or more approved measures contain conflicting provisions, the elections committee shall proclaim which has precedence.

Section 17: Certificate of Election Required Before Taking Oath of Office.

When a candidate elected to public office is required by law to take an oath of office before entering upon the duties of the office, the candidate shall not take the oath until the candidate has been granted a certificate of election.

Section 18: Procedure When There is a Tie Vote.

When two or more candidates for the same office have an equal number of votes and cannot otherwise both fulfill offices in the case of offices in the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively:

A. The Chief Elections Officer shall implement the procedures outlined for a tie vote.

Section 19: Oregon State University Requirements For All Elected Positions.

A. Undergraduate students shall have earned at least six (6) hours of credit in their most recently completed term, be currently registered for at least six (6) hours, not be on conduct probation, and have a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.00.

The Associated Students of Oregon State University
Elections Committee

B. Graduate students shall have earned at least five (5) hours of credit in their most recently completed term, be currently registered for at least five (5) hours, not be on conduct probation, and have a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.00.

Section 20: Elections committee requirements for all elected positions.

A. Candidates must intend to be enrolled for the entire academic year at the Corvallis campus of Oregon State University.

B. To appear on the ballot candidates must officially declare for candidacy by submitting the required documents no later than Friday January 19, 2018 at 5:00 PM to asosuvp@oregonstate.edu

C. Eligibility will be confirmed of all candidates by Monday, January 22, 2018. All candidates will be notified by email the status of their eligibility.

D. Candidates who have filed for candidacy by the required deadline may change the position for which they are running no later than 5:00 p.m. on the specified date.

E. Write-in candidates are subject to all rules and eligibility requirements in this packet and those of the University. Reasonable exceptions may be made for write-in candidates (for example, the information session; see below) at the discretion of the Elections Committee.

F. Candidates for all elected offices are required to attend an information session the dates of which shall be provided on the calendar of deadlines.

Section 21: Organizing.

A. Organizing is considered privately planning or preparing for the campaign process. Organizing includes, but is not limited to the following activities:

1. Asking individuals to be part of your campaign team
2. Strategizing for the campaign
3. Designing and producing campaign materials.

Section 22: Campaigning.

A. Campaigning is considered any public printed, electronic or verbal communication advocating a particular candidate. Campaigning is also considered any organized talk, speech or informational meeting advocating a particular candidate.

B. Campaigning (both online and on campus) shall not begin until January 29, 2018 at 12:01 AM.

Section 23: Campaign Materials.

A. Campaign material (including, but not limited to, posters, shirts, fliers, buttons, websites, social media, etc.) is subject to approval by the ASOSU Elections Committee and/or Chair and must abide by the rules listed herein and in rulings of the Committee.

B. Campaign materials may be submitted for pre-approval to the Chief Elections Officer at asosuvp@oregonstate.edu. The elections committee shall have the authority to deny any material that is not pre-approved.

Elections Committee

C. No campaign materials may be placed on building exteriors, light poles, trees or automobiles. Refer to the Schedule of Classes' Student Life Policy. This would include candidate's personal vehicles, this also includes on and off campus locations

D. All campaign materials, unless otherwise approved, must have the ASOSU Elections website address on them:

asosu.oregonstate.edu/elections

These shall include, but not be limited to:

1. Campaign posters
2. Social networking sites
3. Websites
4. Fliers (must follow university marketing guidelines)
5. T-shirts
6. Buttons
7. Stickers

F. No chalking shall be permitted.

G. No candidate or affiliate shall remove or deface the campaign materials of another candidate.

H. Only the members of the Elections Committee shall remove illegal campaign materials.

Illegal campaign materials include, but are not limited to, materials that have been previously denied approval, or not approved as outlined in the campaign packet.

I. Candidates sending emails over listservs must first obtain permission from that list's administrator as well as the Chief Elections Officer.

J. Campaigning may not include the use of Benny the Beaver, Oregon State University logos, copyrighted colors, symbols, or any pictures or models that may be perceived as an endorsement by the University.

K. Candidates or tickets are not responsible for violations of campaign materials or campaign location violations by students or other individuals in possession of/or displaying non-stationary campaign materials such as shirts, buttons, flyers, stickers, as well as third party posters and social networking sites.

L. All candidates and campaigns shall comply with libel and slander laws under the provisions of ORS-260.532.

Section 24: Campaign Locations

A. Campaigning in University living establishments is at the discretion of that organization. Candidates are expected to abide by all regulations of the organization as well as University regulations. University recognized housing includes residence halls, fraternities, sororities, etc.

B. Campaigning shall not occur within classrooms or during lectures.

Section 25: General Regulations.

A. All candidates must follow every deadline. Requests for extension of deadlines must be submitted to the ASOSU Elections Chair three days prior to the original deadlines.

B. Candidates and campaign organizers may not provide the means for any student to vote at any time.

The Associated Students of Oregon State University

Elections Committee

C. Candidates that violate any rules, regulations, or standing procedure administered by an OSU organization may be considered in violation of ASOSU Election Policies subject to the discretion of the ASOSU Elections Committee.

Section 26: Violations; process to appeal violations.

A. Major Offenses shall include the following violations:

1. Providing students with the means to vote. Members of a candidate's campaign team also may not provide students with the means to vote.
2. Submitting votes for other students.
3. Tampering with the electronic election system.
4. Harassment, intimidation, bribery or fraud with the intent of affecting the outcome of the election.
5. Tampering with another campaign's materials.
6. Failing to file required documents on time unless granted an extension prior to due date.
7. Intentional actions to mislead or obstruct the duties of the Elections Committee.
8. Failing to comply with the rulings of the Elections Committee.
9. Exceeding the campaign finance limit by more than one percent on any Financial Statements.
10. Promising to hire any student during campaigning, or making overtures to hire or appoint students to positions prior to the final election, particularly in order to gain support for a campaign. Candidates may openly encourage students to apply for positions within ASOSU. Candidates cannot describe their desire in having individual students or students at-large take interest in specific positions, but candidates are prohibited from "earmarking" students for positions and vice-versa.
11. Cannot hire any individual for compensation without the approval of the Elections Committee
12. Committing three or more Minor Offenses.
13. Violation of Section 30: Ethics
14. Candidates cannot be sponsored by any affiliate of Oregon State University (ex: Oregon Student Association, Student Fee Funded Departments/Organizations)
  1. Sponsorship is defined as donations, access to buildings, exclusive information, and endorsement, etc.
15. Any action that a majority of the Elections Committee deems to be of a severe enough nature as to warrant a major violation.

B. Minor Offenses are any violations of the Elections rules and regulations not specifically stated as a Major Offense.

C. Any alleged violation of campaign rules must be recorded via the Elections Violation Submission Form, found at: asosu.oregonstate.edu/elections. This form must be submitted within two days after the offense has been observed. Any party who witnessed the offense may report the violation and may include documented proof of the incident when applicable. Alleged violation reports must include the candidate committing the offense, date, place and time of offense, and any other pertinent information.

D. Once a complaint has been filed, the Elections Committee will review the violation at the next scheduled meeting. The candidate will be notified immediately of the charges against them.

The Associated Students of Oregon State University
Elections Committee

- E. Candidates accused of committing a major offense will receive a hearing by the Elections Committee. Candidates will receive a 24 hour notice of their hearing time, unless the violation is filed during any day of open voting. ASOSU Faculty advisor shall be present at every hearing.
- F. Candidates and/or campaigns to whom a violation is issued may appeal to the Elections Committee during their hearing. The Elections Committee will review the appeal following their hearing and must make their decision within two working days of receiving the appeal form
- G. The Elections Committee may disqualify a candidate for any Major Offense, gross violations of the University Policies, or actions that cause damages to the student body.

Section 27: Campaign Spending Limits; sources of funding.

- A. All campaigns are limited to $300 for each individual or ticket regardless of the office. No person or ticket that campaigns for multiple offices shall commingle any funding from individual campaigns, or combine the spending limits of any other campaigns.
- B. Any donation (money or estimated cost of material items) will count towards the $300 spending limit.
- C. Campaigns shall limit spending to the promotion of their individual campaign. Money shall not be commingled with other campaigns.
- D. Money shall not come from public sources or organizations (either internal or external to OSU), but may come from private sources such as friends and family members.

Section 28: Financial statements; dates due.

- A. Financial Statements must be filed and shall include the following:
1. An itemized list of all expenditures, including approved hiring
  2. List of all donated materials and estimated value.
  3. A detailed list of all contributions, whether personal or from donors.
- B. Financial statements shall be due:
1. Mid-Campaign Financial Statement due: February 7, 2018 by 10:00pm to asosuvp@oregonstate.edu
  2. Final Financial Statement due: Friday, February 16, 2018 by 5:00 pm to asosuvp@oregonstate.edu
- 10a. The Final Financial Statement shall act as the final statement accounting for all contributions and expenses. No purchases or payments shall be made on campaign expenses after this time.

Section 29: Parties

- A. The formation and running as/of a party is strictly prohibited at all times.
- B. Parties shall be defined as: A student political organization for the purpose of pursuing a shared agenda by exercising their shared political power, effort or money
  1. This is not to be confused with any recognized or customary organization in existence prior to the start of the elections.

The Associated Students of Oregon State University

Elections Committee

2. The commingling of campaign finances and materials shall be strictly prohibited, with the sole exception of a joint President/Vice President ticket filed with the elections committee.
3. This is not to limit free speech, or any spoken statements, but instead to limited printed or co-organized materials.
4. Campaign resources may only be used to support the respective candidate's ticket

Section 30: Ethics

- A. At all times candidates shall conduct themselves with the highest degree of moral fortitude as determined by the judgement of the elections committee, and shall act in accordance with the ASOSU and OSU Code of Conduct.
- B. Candidates shall follow all federal, state, local and university laws at all times.
- C. Candidates shall never act in a manner that can be deemed:

ELECTION PLATFORM GUIDELINES

Please submit a platform statement and photo to the Chief Elections Officers via asosuvp@oregonstate.edu by January 19, 2018 at 5:00pm.

This paragraph will be posted on the ASOSU website, could go in The Daily Barometer, and will also be on the ballot. If this paragraph and photo is not submitted by the deadline, you will not be eligible for candidacy.

To fill for candidacy, please submit a form found on the asosu.oreonstate.edu/elections webpage.

Some ideas for things to include in your platform statement are as follows:

- Official Title of the Position for which you are campaigning
- Justification: why are you campaigning for this position?
- Experience: what experiences qualify you for this position?
- Issues: what issues do you intend to address on behalf of students, if elected?
- Strategies: how do you intend to address the needs of students, if elected?
