V. New Business

- a. Ethics & Compliance Position Meeting Prep
 - Anna Godfrey will be attending the next meeting, talking about the position expectations and the recent memos
 - Possibly renting a room for that meeting, the rooms in the MU are free for students to book. Hopefully we will have it done by tonight and have a room for future committee meetings.
 - Keeping a record of the violation of statues not to call people out for these violations. More for record keeping, make that clear.
 - What is the end goal of the meeting? Will the process of maybe moving from the counselor role towards the ethics and compliance committee be talked about?
 - Maybe we could ask if they had any questions on the censure memo? Possibly pre-emptively ask so both sides can be prepared.
 - Maybe asking and giving feedback regarding the code of conduct, bringing up the idea of becoming more involved within the committee? Good to explicitly have an open-ended invitation.

VI. Old Business

1) Statutory Compliance Review

- a) Concern about having a meeting with all the Judicial counselors, especially when it comes to having the unit tours.
- b) Would go on the executive agenda of the OGC, which is on Nov 1st
- c) Having the Student Legal Services give a presentation regarding public meeting law, recordkeeping, etc. Would be the most beneficial for the JC but it would be beneficial if senators could be involved.
- d) Perhaps taking place before or after the state of the student, have all the branches in one place to attend
- e) The JC is going to start looking at re-writing their bylaws, which need to be approved by the senate.
- f) Action items: For the bylaws being written, maybe send a student gov representative to help with that. Adison as student gov liaison for the process of re-writing JC bylaws. Emerson reaching out to Zach regarding the SLS presentation.

2) Reviewing SB 83.23 “ASOSU Code of Conduct”
