            b) Leslie Schacht Drey - ODOS/ASOSU
            c) Sharanda Norman - ASOSU

II. Charge from the Budget Manager
   A. Why we’re here and the request
      1. Presentation by Daniel Dietz, ASOSU’s Primary Budget Manager. (Daniel’s other role is as a Student Advocate working to direct the Office of Advocacy.)
         a) Through this role, sees the role he’s taking on as comprising two things:
            (1) To “Collaborate with units to develop budgets.”
            (2) To “Communicate budget info between ASOSU and SFC.

b) Timeline overview was shown, including 11/15 presentation to SFC with SAB Chair.

c) Allowed time for questions from the committee:

   (1) Chris asked if Daniel is writing the budget up himself, or if not, where the original budget is coming from:

   (a) Daniel: Answered that the AABC (Auxiliaries and Activities Business Center) is to provide a template, which “is a spreadsheet with a list of different activity codes -- so, ways that programs typically spend money -- and then a projection for what that spending might be based on past years’ trends.”

   (b) Daniel also noted that “the starting point will be the projection from AABC, but we’re going to put a lot of thought into every line that comes through, and then the final submission is a big spreadsheet with all the numbers plugged in that I will hand off to AABC.”

   (2) Dylan asked if Daniel would be the person presenting in front of the SFC alongside the budget managers for the other units:

   (a) Daniel noted he would be “co-presenting” with the SAB Chair.

   (3) Shay: appreciates Daniel’s work, mentioned interest as an advisor in ensuring the ability to “maintain respect for all of the benefits we know come from co-curricular engagement, and make sure that it’s ever-present in this process for students.”
