To Whom it May Concern:

The ASOSU Elections Committee is releasing a statement to the student population regarding the current election season.

On the night of Sunday, February 16th, 2020, the Elections Committee received a statement regarding a potential campaign violation by the Hill-Fujimura ticket and the Perfect-Warren ticket. This violation is alleged to have occurred during a meeting between Jack Hill and Dylan Perfect, two current Presidential candidates. After receiving this statement, the Elections Committee met with both candidates individually to create a set of facts describing the meeting. On Wednesday, February 19th, 2020, the Committee called in both Perfect and Hill to clarify any discrepancies surrounding the meeting where the potential violation occurred. On Thursday, February 20th, 2020, the Committee moved forward, addressing the accusation of the Hill-Fujimura ticket of violating Major Violation Rule #4: “Harassment, intimidation, bribery or fraud with the intent of affecting the outcome of the election,” and called the Hill-Fujimura ticket in for the official hearing.

The first hearing occurred on Thursday, February 20th, 2020, at 5:30 p.m.. The meeting included three Elections Committee members--Kylie Boenisch, Halli Barrios, and Saﬁ Ahmad, ASOSU Faculty Advisor Drew Desilet--and Hill-Fujimura ticket representative, Jack Hill. This meeting was an opportunity for the ticket to explain their defense to the committee members to evaluate the circumstances of the accusation and determine if a violation had occurred. In the hearing, Jack Hill confirmed an offer was made to Dylan Perfect to reimburse him for money spent leading up to campaigning dates in order for the Perfect-Warren ticket to drop out from competing in the President/Vice-President race.

The Committee, after additional information was provided, heavily discussed the matter. After discussion, the Committee unanimously found the Hill-Fujimura ticket in violation of Rule #4 under Major Violations of the Elections Packet. Following the first hearing, Jack Hill, on behalf of the Hill-Fujimura ticket, requested an appeal.

The Elections Appeal Committee consisted of Elections Committee members not involved in the first hearing. This hearing, conducted on Friday, February 21st, 2020, at 10:00 a.m., included Elections Committee members Jordan Harper, Ian Walker, and ASOSU Faculty Advisor Shay Norman. Presenting the findings from the first hearing were Election Committee members Saﬁ Ahmad and Halli Barrios, and Hill-Fujimura ticket was represented by Jack Hill. Gretchen Fujimura, the VP candidate on the ticket, was invited to both hearings. During this appeal hearing, Saﬁ Ahmad and Halli Barrios acted as the respondents and Jack Hill acted as the appellant. The respondents presented the information gathered during the first hearing and rationale for finding the Hill-Fujimura ticket guilty of violating Rule #4. The appellant also provided their perspective.
The Appeals Committee upheld the decision rendered in the initial hearing. At this point, the Hill-Fujimura ticket has requested to appeal the decision to the ASOSU Judicial Council, as election rules permit.
