

JB-06.11

Bill to Set the Number of Seats in the ASOSU House of Representatives

WHEREAS Amendment 1: “House of Representatives Membership” Section D reads; “The number of seats shall be determined annually by the fifth week in winter term by a bill passed by a two-thirds majority of both houses of the ASOSU Congress”

WHEREAS Amendment 1: “House of Representatives Membership” Section E reads; “If no bill altering the number of seats and constituencies in the House of Representatives is passed, the number of seats in the House of Representatives shall remain the same as the previous year.”

WHEREAS It is the duty of the ASOSU Congress to amend Title II, Section 2, Subsection A of the ASOSU Statutes to determine a set number of seats for the House of Representatives by the fifth week of this winter term.

WHEREAS The individual constituencies are not required to be allocated by week 5 winter term.

WHEREAS Setting the number of seats for the ASOSU House of Representatives at 35 seats allows for an additional 10 seats to the 25 required.

BE IT HEREBY ENACTED BY THE ASOSU THAT:

Upon passage of this legislation, Number 6 shall be added Title II, Section 2, Subsection A of the ASOSU Statutes. It shall read:

6) The House of Representatives shall be composed of thirty-five members chosen each year by the ASOSU. Members shall serve for one year.

i) Thirty members of the House of Representatives shall be members of the ASOSU which pay undergraduate fees.

ii) Five members of the House of Representatives shall be members of the ASOSU which pay graduate fees.”

iii) As per the first amendment of the ASOSU Constitution, this section shall supersede Article III Subsection D Number 1 of the ASOSU Constitution.
