Oregon State University is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to hiring a diverse workforce. We encourage those who are from traditionally underrepresented groups, including students who are of color, women, LGBTQ, veterans and people with disabilities to apply.

The Director of Non-Traditional Affairs shall assist the ASOSU in promoting self-governance in the best interest of students at Oregon State University. This includes, but is not limited to, ensuring that all students on campus are supported and have access to resources that can be useful.

Job Responsibilities:
• Be responsible for gathering information, tracking legislation, and conducting research on issues and policies concerning non-traditional students in higher education
• Create a comprehensive filing system to facilitate ongoing research and data compilation on non-traditional issues
• Be an advocate for non-traditional student affairs in which ASOSU should engage itself and encourage involvement of non-traditional students
• Inform students of issues and legislation of importance and gather student opinion on the issues
• Work closely with the Director of Women’s Affairs to serve student parents
• Advise Executive Cabinet on non-traditional issues
• Work with and support the 25+ lounge in the Memorial Union
• Write an article on current campaigns and goals at the request of the Executive Director of Marketing or the Executive Director of Diversity Programs
• Recruit and coordinate a task force to accomplish the duties mentioned above and hold at least one task force meeting a week.
• Report to the ASOSU House of Representatives and Senate at least once per term on the campaigns and goals of the task force
• Collaborate with other student organizations and administrative areas addressing similar issues including, but not limited to, the Women’s Center, Orchard Court, Childcare and Family Resources, Human Services Resource Center, and ISOSU
• Maintain a clean office environment and work space
• Actively participate with the ASOSU team
• Maintain a strong presence at campus and community events
• Maintain the Non-Traditional Student Affairs Task Force Budget
• Work 15 office hours per week during the academic year
• Other duties as assigned

As a Member of the Associated Students of Oregon State University Executive Branch, you are obligated to be active in the recruitment of new interns and volunteers, maintain a clean office environment and work space, actively participate with the ASOSU team, maintain a strong presence at campus and community events, and actively reach out to other student groups.
