Oregon State University is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to hiring a diverse workforce. We encourage those who are from traditionally underrepresented groups, including students who are of color, women, LGBTQ, veterans and people with disabilities to apply.

The Director of Queer Affairs shall assist the ASOSU in promoting self-governance in the best interest of students at Oregon State University. This includes, but is not limited to, directing projects and campaigns that will better the experience of students at OSU and act as a resource for students, especially queer students.

Job Responsibilities:

- Be responsible for gathering information, tracking legislation, and conducting research on issues and policies concerning queer students in higher education
- Create a comprehensive filing system to facilitate ongoing research and data compilation on queer issues
- Be an advocate for queer OSU students to create a safe, open environment
- Inform students of queer issues and legislation of importance and gather student opinion on the issues
- Support and Serve on the Oregon Student Association’s Oregon Statewide Students Equal Rights Alliance (OSERA)
- Serve on the Pride Planning Committee, the Queer Leaders Committee and the Queer Coordinator Committee
- Monitor the university statement against nondiscrimination
- Advise the Executive Cabinet on queer issues
- Coordinate the advocacy and programming efforts of ASOSU on issues concerning queer students
- Write an article on current campaigns and goals at the request of the Executive Director of Marketing or the Executive Director of Diversity Programs
- Recruit and coordinate a task force to accomplish the duties mentioned above and hold at least one task force meeting a week.
- Report to the ASOSU House of Representatives and Senate at least once per term on the campaigns and goals of the task force
- Collaborate with other student organizations and administrative areas including, but not limited to, the Rainbow Continuum, the Pride Center, and SOL on issues related to queer affairs
- Maintain a clean office environment and work space
- Actively participate with the ASOSU team
- Maintain a strong presence at campus and community events
- Maintain the Queer Affairs Task Force Budget
- Work 15 office hours per week during the academic year
- Other duties as assigned

As a Member of the Associated Students of Oregon State University Executive Branch, you are obligated to be active in the recruitment of new interns and volunteers, maintain a clean office environment and work space, actively participate with the ASOSU team, maintain a strong presence at campus and community events, and actively reach out to other student groups.
